Natural Eco-friendly Soaps made in small controlled batches.

Buying eco-friendly handcrafted American products over cheaper foreign products helps our environment and our economy. You may pay a little more for American made but the quality usually far exceeds inexpensive foreign products made in mass quantities with inferior ingredients. American's who make handcrafted products and sell them, earn money which in turn is spent here in America keeping our economy healthy rather than other countries.

I take special pleasure in providing our customers we face day to day, with quality products at a fair price. We will not compromise by using inferior synthetic ingredients such as parabens, and detergents which degrade and cheapen our product. Rather we choose to continue to use natural ingredients like olive oil and shea butter which are more costly, but so much better for your skin and body.

You get what you pay for! That includes contact dermatitis and skin irritation especially on dry, sensitive skin. It's usually the detergent in the cheap product that dries your skin and makes the use of lotions necessary. After using natural products, most are convinced that they are far safer and less expensive than most harsh chemical laden commercial products.

Cold processed olive oil and shea butter soaps super hydrate, protect and rejuvenate the skin. Try my natural soap and our Shea butter body cream for a week, you will see and feel a big difference on your skin. Enjoy!
Many Blessings, Mary Ann
